

Intersections between the Tasks of the Moral Imperative Working Groups

ADVOCACY	EVIDENCE	COLLABORATION
1. Enable an environment for FBOs to be able to fulfill their varied roles in sustainable development and poverty alleviation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) identify tools developed by FBOs in and for their work that are novel or innovative, b) Map the country level on the entry points to strengthen FBO and religious voice in national policymaking, 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Organize a Donor-UN-FBO convening to develop a 'Faith-inspired Measurement Framework for "Transforming our world" - the post 2015 SDG agenda' b) Active outreach to FBOs around the evidence behind the achievability of the goal 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Identify sectors and/or SDG goals to prioritize greater multi-faith engagement b) Develop a shared mapping tool, potentially building on pre-existing mapping efforts conducted by World Faiths Development Dialogue
2. Leverage moral imperative as advocacy tool <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Disseminate moral imperative among the faith community to raise awareness and foster multi-faith collaboration and joint action. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Gather, analyze and disseminate different kinds of evidence, and human stories 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Connect with existing multi-faith efforts/initiatives
3. Promote Non-discrimination based on sex, age, race, or belief <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Create an advocacy and communications strategy to promote nondiscrimination focused on marginalized communities. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Connect faith actors with policy makers, academics, and practitioners around thematic and collaborative learning, 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Encourage other organizations where beneficial to develop their own concrete plans/commitments.
4. Advocate for the successful financing for the SDG agenda	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Convene FBOs, policymakers, academics, and practitioners at country level to increase "Evidence literacy" 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Collaborate with the upcoming German government donor meeting focused on religion & development
5. Recognize and embrace the distinct roles of faith-based organizations (FBOs) and their "right of initiative" <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Identify the added value of FBO (approaches/strategies) tackling the same set of issues. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Strengthen & develop platforms for cross-sector discussions 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Explore whether WB/UN lead in convening stakeholder meeting between FBO and religious organizations